

HUNDREDS OF JEWS KILLED IN POGROMS

LONDON, March 28.—Hundreds of Jews were killed or wounded in recent pogroms in the Ukraine, according to reports to the Zionist organization by an eyewitness. The pogroms were headed by a "death regiment," it is claimed. Most of the massacres took place between Kiev and Bakhmach.

Jewish notables were drowned or shot, and Jewish women were subjected to shameful treatment, it is claimed. The pogroms are reported to have taken place at Berdichev, Zhitomir, Tchernohyl, Ovrutsch, Belajzeroff, Letichev, Elisabethgrad, Vasilkov, and other places.

KARL AND WIFE FLEE TO WARTAU BY MOCK MARRIAGE

GENEVA, March 28.—Fearing assassination, the former Emperor and Empress of Austria, who are now living in Switzerland, have fled from the castle they were occupying in the eastern part of the country, to Wartau, following an attack upon the castle by a band of bandits.

NAMED LANE'S ASSISTANT.
John W. Halliwell, of Massachusetts, for some time in charge of organization work for the Food Administration, has been named assistant to the Secretary of the Interior.

DUPED AND ROBBED BY MOCK MARRIAGE

BALTIMORE, March 28.—Lured into a mock marriage, victimized by her supposed husband until she had lost jewels and cash valued at $3,400 and then deserted, Mrs. Lavina Walker, of northwest Baltimore, related a pitiable story to the grand jury yesterday, which resulted in the indictment of Burton Merrill MacLane, forty-four years old.

For nearly a year Mrs. Walker actually believed that she was MacLane's wife. In the neighborhood of her home she was known as Mrs. MacLane. Three weeks ago she went to the northeastern police station and obtained a warrant for his arrest charging him with non-support. At that time she related that she had sacrificed most of her life's savings for MacLane's benefit.

When the case was brought to the attention of Detective O'Donnell he began an investigation. When Mrs. MacLane was unable to show a marriage license, the detective suspected that she had been duped and the proper steps were taken to find out. Mrs. Walker told O'Donnell that she was married to "MacLane" in New York April 3, 1918.

Mrs. Walker almost collapsed when she was told that she had been led into a trap. She was a widow before she met MacLane and her jewelry was valued at $2,000 and she had a bank account of more than $1,000. MacLane disappeared three months ago, and with him went the jewelry and $800.

BRITAIN NOT TO ABOLISH TANKS

LONDON, March 28.—Tanks as an implement of war will not be abolished by Great Britain. The value of these moving forts of steel, which played such an important part in breaking the Hindenburg line is considered so great that a committee, superseding the government tank board, has been organized by the war office to supervise all tank activities.

Experiments will be carried on in hope of improving the "whippets" and the gun-carrying type. Officials of the war office realize that an army of 50,000 men, equipped with tanks and airplanes, could easily defeat a force of 100,000 men without tanks. In fact, one officer, well versed in the history of the present war, made the following prediction today:

"In any future war we shall never have the gigantic armies of men with enormous stores of supplies which can be so easily bombed and needing miles of communicating lines, always liable to be cut."

"I feel that we shall have comparatively small armies of men with numbers of mechanical appliances, of which tanks, aircraft and artillery will be the most important factors."

"We are now aiming to develop more speed and mobility in our tanks."

SUICIDE FEARED HE WOULD NEVER DIE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 28.—Fearing that ever reckoning Death had overlooked him and oppressed by the fact that all his old friends were leaving him to answer the final call, Frederick Layton, 100 years and 3 months old, hung himself to a bedpost. Layton, who came here from England forty years ago, was one of the oldest men in this section of the country, and was well known in this city.

In his younger days he was a trainer of race horses, and was a prominent figure at the British race tracks, where he hobnobbed, he claimed, with King Edward, at that time Prince of Wales. The centenary attempted suicide a year ago, but failed. Several months ago the neighborhood gave a large entertainment in his honor and presented him with a $1,000 purse.

His spirits seemed to revive, but recently he became melancholy, seeing all his friends die, and decided to join them of his own accord.

MORE LOANED ALLIES.
Additional credits of $100,000,000 in favor of France, and of $3,858,930 in favor of Greece, were announced by the Treasury Department yesterday. This makes a total of $2,617,477,800 for France and $43,112,966 for Greece, with a grand total of $9,936,262,900 for all the allies.

HEARST RUSHES TO SICK MOTHER
NEW YORK, March 28.—In response to an urgent telegram saying that his mother, Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, is seriously ill, William Randolph Hearst, accompanied by Mrs. Hearst, is speeding to San Francisco today.

The mother of the publisher has been ill for several months. Mr. Hearst had postponed his visit to her that he may be here to welcome officially the Twenty-seventh division.

SAYS WIREMEN'S STRIKE IS CERTAIN

CHICAGO, March 28.—Holding that there is no alternative except a strike, S. J. Koenekamp, head of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, announced here that plans were being made for taking a vote for a nationwide strike, effective April 22. He predicts "90 per cent of the workers will vote for the walkout."

"I am convinced that Burleson will do nothing until a strike is on," he said in a statement last night. "Burleson will listen to a report from Western Union officials. We have been anxious for a peaceful adjustment, but Burleson repeats all the trouble is caused by agitators. There is nothing we can do except to show him how he has been misled."

Money saved is what counts. Money invested in War Savings Stamps grows day and night.

CYCLOPS MYSTERY LIES FAST IN DEEP

The fate of the collier Cyclops probably will never be known. The Navy Department gave the vessel up for lost many months ago, but since that time efforts have been made to learn whether or not Germany had any knowledge of her fate. The German admiralty announced that it is unable to give any assistance in solving the mystery.

Dispatches say the German admiralty received no reports of the sinking of the Cyclops. They add that no German submarines were operating in West Indian waters at the time she disappeared.

The Cyclops disappeared just one year ago while en route from Brazil for the United States with a crew of 13 officers and 221 men, 57 passengers, and a cargo of manganese.

"The Greatest Little Revolution Since 1776"

Less than four years ago, when the sense of economic grievance that rankled in the hearts of North Dakota's farmers had been fanned to a flame by the refusal of the legislature to establish a State-owned terminal grain-elevator, a man named Arthur C. Townley jumped into a small hired automobile and began by a farm-to-farm canvass the organization of the Non-Partisan League. For months the old line politicians regarded this "silver campaign" as a joke, but today they see Mr. Townley's league of farmers grown to a membership of more than 200,000 with a political organization in thirteen States, representation in the U. S. Congress, and completely in control of North Dakota's government.

The St. Paul Dispatch terms the league "the most revolutionary political machine that ever gained complete autocratic control of legislative affairs in any State in the Union," while the Minneapolis Tribune speaks of it as "Townleyism, the political prairie fire that is now raging in North Dakota and spreading to surrounding States," but as the New York World reminds us "North Dakota and her people will pay the bill and the rest of the country will profit by the demonstration."

In the course of an illustrated article, comprising more than three pages in this week's LITERARY DIGEST, every phase of this movement is explained, together with public opinion upon it from all angles. Other news articles of great interest in "The Digest" for March 29th are:
